AUGUST 1985

GREETINGS FROM YOUR LEGISLATIVE OFFICER:

This past Legislative Session has been very fruitful for A.B.A.T.E. of Oregon, Inc. We, as an organization, have taken a GIANT step forward in becoming recognized in the Legislature. So, now WE must spend the time and energy to get out there and get to know your local representatives, voice YOUR opinion, exercise YOUR freedom of speech, and show these elected officials that we are serious, WE ARE "DEDICATED TO THE FREEDOM OF THE ROAD". . .

We are at this time scheduling meetings with the Oregon State Police, and the Governor's Motorcycle Safety Committee as well as on-going communications with Stan Porter and the fine folks at the Oregon Traffic Safety Commission.

Topics for these meetings are: Public Awareness; Road Conditions and Proper Warning Signs; A.B.A.T.E. Action Reports; TEAM OREGON and the B.B.P.; and just plain "getting to know A.B.A.T.E. of Oregon Inc."

Keep up the GOOD WORK, get INVOLVED and WE WILL MAKE A DIFFERENCE. . .

Thanks from the Capitol City, Your Legislative Representative, Butch Harbaugh, 363-6106

A MESSAGE FROM YOUR MEMBERSHIP SECRETARY!

At the last state board meeting, updated (at that time) membership lists were passed out to State Reps., to be given to your chapter's membership secretary. If there are any address corrections, please let me know so we can send newsletters to the correct addresses.

IMPORTANT: I have to know before the state board meeting if your chapter needs more new membership packets. I will have them at the board meetings, they will be signed for by your chapter reps., but I WILL NOT HAVE EXTRAS. I must know the total before the state meetings. Each new member should receive a new membership packet when they pay their money to the chapter. Each chapter should have a total number of new member packets of 5 or 10 depending on the size of the chapter. It is the responsibility of the chapter membership secretaries to keep these new member packets on hand and to let me know when supplies run low.

As membership secretary, I am also trying to contact those members who have paid their dues but never received their memberships. Let me know of anyone whose membership got messed up and we will try to make it right.

NOTE: ALL MEMBERSHIP CORRESPONDENCE GOES TO THE PO BOX, ATTENTION MEMBERSHIP SECRETARY. ALL NEWSLETTER CORRESPONDENCE AND REPORTS GO TO THE PO BOX, ATTENTION NEWSLETTER.

ALL CHAPTER REPORTS FOR DEACON GO DIRECTLY TO HIM AT HIS PO BOX IN CORNELIUS. DO NOT SEND THE COORDINATOR'S REPORTS TO PO BOX 4504. DO NOT USE THE PO BOX FOR CHAPTER BUSINESS.

All names that I have records for have been entered in the computer. I update addresses, daily, as I receive them from the PO. Thank you for all your help.

Cutting Lead Content in Gasoline

Alarmed by substantially higher lead levels in the air—of which lead in gasoline accounts for 80%—the Environmental Protection Agency announced new regulations in March 1985, to reduce the lead content in gasoline from the 1.1 gram per gallon rate in effect since 1982, to a new rate of 0.5 grams per gallon beginning July 1, 1985. The agency has formally proposed banning lead altogether by 1988.

WASHINGTON (AP) — Lead concentrations in gasoline take another step down Monday, but the government says drivers who use it need not worry that their engines will knock or their engine valves will wear out as a result.

The new lower concentration is far above the level needed to prevent valve damage, EPA officials say. Knocking, or pinging, depends on octane rating, experts say, and refiners expect to maintain the same octane level.

A lot of gasoline already meets the new standard. Some major refiners have been producing at the lower concentration for months. Lead levels must decline again next year, and again in 1987.

Lead is a powerful poison that the agency has been trying to take out of the environment for years. It has been added to gasoline since the 1920s because it is the cheapest method of raising octane. Until the introduction of special hardening techniques in 1971-1975, automakers relied on lead deposits to protect engine valves against excessive wear.

Most cars made since 1975 have been designed to use unleaded gasoline to avoid destruction of the anti-pollution catalysts in the exhaust pipe. As the number of older cars declines, so does the use of leaded fuel.

Currently, leaded gasoline has about 36 percent of the market, down from 41 percent a year ago.

On Monday, refiners must reduce the maximum concentration from 1.1 grams per gallon to 0.5 gram per gallon. Come Jan. 1, the limit is 0.1 gram.

The Lundberg Letter, a trade publication, said major refiners were producing at 0.58 gram per gallon.

If you already have a knocking problem, you are better served by moving to a higher octane," said Walter Retzsch, a refining specialist at the American Petroleum Institute.

For motorists worried about valves, EPA says 0.1 gram is protection enough. Many studies have shown that high speeds and heavy loads cause rapid valve wear when unleaded gasoline is used, but EPA could find only one study aimed at finding how much lead is needed to protect valves. That study concluded that 0.04 gram to 0.07 gram was enough.

EPA left 0.1 gram in "because we were being cautious," said Jim Caldwell, head of the fuels branch in EPA's air pollution program.

"There is a great deal of conjecture whether it is needed at all" for normal driving with older engines, he said. The agency will be studying the question further in years to come as it tries to decide whether to ban all lead.

--> COMMENTS FROM THE EDITOR <--

Here's a reminder to everyone — the Environmental Protection Agency has still not set a deadline for public comment on the issue of a ban on lead additives in gasoline. Most all of you drive motorcycles that require the use of leaded fuel — some of you may even have cages with similar requirements. ALL of you are urged to write in opposition to the total ban on lead in gas. Your letters should be addressed to:

Accident kills motorcycle passenger

A Portland woman who was a passenger on a motorcycle died Sunday evening following an accident on Southeast 28th Avenue, near Woodstock Boulevard, Portland police said.

Michele A. Sewell, 22, of 3436 S.E. Francis St., was pronounced dead at the Oregon Health Sciences University, where she was taken after the 6:55 p.m. accident.

Sewell was a passenger on a motorcycle driven by David C. Nelson, 18, of the Francis Street address. He was being treated late Sunday for an arm injury at OHSU and was expected to be released.

The two were northbound on 28th Avenue when they struck a car that had stopped to make a left turn, police said. Neither was wearing a helmet, and Sewell suffered head injuries, police said. The car was driven by Thomas Leonettis, 30, of 3785 S.E. Grant St., Portland, police said.

No citations were issued. The accident is under investigation, police said, and findings will be forwarded to the Multnomah County district attorney's office.

Has anyone noticed that the Oregonian never fails to mention the lack of helmets in fatal head injuries accidents, but when they're wearing 'em, nary a word.

Look at all this wasted space — a result of hasty editing. The clipping is from the Monday, July 8th OREGONIAN.

LINCOLN COUNTY

By the time that you read this, the Third Annual Beaver Creek Run will be history. For those of you who joined us a big thanks and hope that you had a good time. It was our pleasure to have you.

It sure has been beautiful weather for riding the roads. We had a large portion of our members head to Weiser and encounter nothing but good weather and good times.

It looks like we will be having some free time for awhile. The next thing going on in Lincoln County will be our B.B.P. on September 7. We are really looking forward to it.

Really not much to say at this time, except be aware when you are on the roadways. We want you to arrive at your destination safely.

NE PORTLAND

Greetings once again from NE Portland. It's been a very hectic month for everyone here what with trying to get things ready for the East Portland Summer Run coming up on August 17 and 18. While I'm on that subject, some of the flyers for the run had the dates of August 16 and 17, BUT OUR SUMMER RUN IS SCHEDULED FOR THE 17 AND 18 OF AUGUST. Hope to see a lot of people up on the mountain for it will be a very good time for all.

One of our members, Diesel Dave, found a mans ring at the Canal Creek run. If anyone knows who it belongs to, pass the word around and tell them to send a description to the Post Office Box and he will see that it gets back to the owner.

Our Fifth Birthday Party was a good time for everyone who showed up. That's it from NE Portland for this month. Ride Free, Leslie

RIVER CITY

Hi! It will be old news by the time you read this, but River City Chapter is planning a chapter picnic/highway coffee stand July 21st at the Celilio Wayside. The idea is to have a good time while providing tired weekend drivers with coffee and a snack and reminding them they are sharing the road with motorcyclists and that we are people too! If it works, we will be out there again. If you're riding our way, stop and have a cup of joe with us.

Our B.B.P. class last June was so successful we would like to sponsor another class this fall. We are hoping to have one September 21 or 28th. This is a valuable refresher course for the serious motorcyclist. If you are interested be sure and call Teresa (298-1317) for information; a positive response is needed or we can't get the instructors out here.

Keep having fun! Vernon 3

A MESSAGE FROM YOUR STATE COORDINATOR

Well, summer is here and it's been beautiful riding weather (NO RAIN!) The July State Board meeting was held in Newport on July 13th, with Lincoln County's Beaver Creek Run afterwards - a good time was had by all! This was the second State Board in the past year that all 26 Chapter Reps bothered to show up for - doesn't say much for our organization. In the future, I'll use this section to list those Chapters that aren't represented at the meetings, and I'll also list those Chapters in non-compliance with the Rules of Operation, specifically, Article 5, #3 (Chapters will communicate with the State Coordinator BY-MONTHLY! I want & NEED to have cyps of all Chapter Minutes sent to me twice a month. I don't know what's happening, nor can I help if I don't have any information from the chapter level. Please send these Minutes and all other Chapter input to "Deacon" (John Edwards), P.O. Box 88, Cornelius, OR 97113, or call me at 359-9364. Talk to the recorder! I'll call you back!

Last month I neglected to list our new State Recording Secretary - she's Kiddy (Cindy Turner). I also left out Marge Gunter, our new Paraphernalia Officer. Please note the new address on the order form.
... 'til next month! Deacon

Woman charged with murder attempt in hit-and-run case

A 20-year-old Portland woman was arrested Saturday on charges of attempted murder after an incident in which a couple riding a motorcycle was run down by an automobile in Southeast Portland.

Teresa Marie Dodge, 1136 N.E. 181st, Apt. 11, was lodged in Multnomah County Justice Center at 9:30 a.m. on two counts of attempted murder in connection with 2:30 a.m. hit-and-run incident at Southeast 38th Avenue and Clinton Street.

Bail was set at $20,000 on both counts, and Dodge was scheduled to be arraigned Monday.

Injured was Charles W. Moyer, 24, also of 1136 N.E. 181st Ave., Apt. 11, and Cherie L. Greenman, 25, 3343 S.E. Stark. The two were riding a motorcycle eastward on Clinton when their motorcycle and Dodge's car collided, according to Sgt. Jay Decker, public information officer for the Portland Police Bureau.

Moyer was listed in fair condition with bruises and abrasions at Portland Adventist Medical Center, and Greenman was listed in satisfactory condition at Providence Medical Center with a fractured pelvis and cuts and bruises, officials at both hospitals said.

Some residents on Clinton Street, awakened by the collision, said they saw a vehicle driving away from the scene, a woman lying on the street and a man angrily yelling at the car leaving the scene.

This story just goes to show you, be discreet! Ain't too many chicks willing to share the pillion seat with another chick!

Dirt bikes enter police force

by STEVE HUNTER
of The Outlook staff

Gresham police officers will hit the dusty trail this summer to try to curtail the motorized dirt bikers who ride illegally on undeveloped land throughout the city.

Police officials decided to add two dirt bikes to the force after numerous trespassing and noise complaints from residents near undeveloped property, said Sgt. Kent Leary, Gresham police spokesman.

The Suzuki 250s are on loan this summer to Gresham from the Multnomah County Sheriff's Office.

"Our motorcycles and cars can't get to these areas," said Leary. "We needed to borrow these dirt bikes to address that problem and start enforcing off-road vehicle ordinances."

Motorcycle officers Roger Bleth and Dennis Bunker will mount the dirt bikes periodically throughout the summer to patrol undeveloped areas where bikers often ride.

Bleth and Bunker will be able to ride the dirt bikes directly to the various sites because the bikes are licensed for the street. Bleth said they should be able to catch many more bikers.

"The kids take off on us now when they see us coming," said Bleth. "They just head into the woods. But when they find out we can get to where they're at, it should slow them down."

The dirt bikers can be cited for trespassing, excessive noise in a residential area and illegally riding the unlicensed bikes on streets. Police also may seize the bike.

And since many of the riders are teenagers, the police will contact the parents of kids. Parents also could be cited if they allowed their child to ride illegally, said Bunker.

"It's been tough to catch them," said Bleth. "But we expect a drastic rise in the number of citations."

The police dirt bike is designed for off-road use and is 500 pounds lighter than a police motorcycle, said Bleth. Both officers will wear police helmets and shirts. But they will wear Levi jeans and work or hiking boots rather than their usual police pants and high leather boots.

"It'll be more comfortable and easier to move," said Bleth about his new outfit.

Dirt bikers ride in just about any undeveloped area around town, said the officers. But they especially enjoy riding in areas near railroad tracks such as south of West Powell Boulevard between Southwest Towle Avenue and Southeast 190th Drive.

That's the same area where a horse was killed last fall after it ran into a fence and broke its neck. The horse was apparently chased by a motorcyclist and a dog.

The only legal area to ride dirt bikes is the off-road course just east of Lewis and Clark State Park and south of Interstate 84, said the officers.

Otherwise, a rider would need written permission from the property owner and that owner would need to be on file with the police department to allow the off-road use, according to city ordinances.

"We've had numerous complaints from residential areas surrounding undeveloped land," said Bleth. "The noise and dust has made their life miserable. We see this as the only answer."

If the dirt bike patrol works to curtail the illegal bikers, Gresham may look into buying its own bikes, said Leary.

The sheriff's office has used dirt bike patrols the last three or four years, especially when bikers extended beyond the boundaries of the course near Lewis and Clark State Park, said Bart Whelan, sheriff's office spokesman.

But he said the county probably won't staff any bikes this summer because of cutbacks in personnel.
